User regulations

- Anyone using the Ap 'n Daun Climbing Center acknowledges these user regulations and is obliged to comply with them.
- Every person using this facility signs a consent form.
- All guests of the climbing center are aware of the risks involved. Neither the owner, nor employees of the Ap 'n Daun climbing center are liable for injuries and, or damages that may occur.
- The staff is not obliged to permanently check the guests for correct belaying and behaviour. The staff is however entitled to intervene in the event of misconduct and incorrect manipulation.
- The instructions of the staff must be strictly followed.

The use of the climbing center is subject to certain conditions:

	Bouldering	TruBlue	Top-rope climbing *	Top-rope belaying *	Lead climbing *	Lead belaying *
Minimum age	13 years old	13 years old	No age limit	16 years old	18 years old	18 years old
Use under minimum age and requirements	For children under the age of 13, the adult accompanying them bears the responsibility	No use allowed below the minimum age of 13 years, until 16 there must be an adult accompanying them to bear the responsibility	The responsibility lies with the belayer or the accompanying person	• Untrained adults may only belay each other if a third person is present who has extensive climbing and belaying experience and is permanently with the belaying person. • Children and young people under the age of 16 or 18 may belay each other in the top rope or lead as long as both have sufficient experience and there is a trained adult accompanying them who takes responsibility • Children (under 13 years of age) are allowed to lead climb if they have solid training and great climbing experience and are belayed by a trained adult. • Young people (from the age of 13) who have a solid climbing education and a lot of experience can apply for an „exemption“ and use the climbing center independently after approval. • Within the framework of a group visit, children and young people are allowed to belay each other (responsibility lies with the group leader).
Previous knowledge	None			Master the correct and independent top-rope belaying according to «Safe Climbing Indoors»	Master the correct and independent lead climbing according to «Safe Climbing Indoors»	Master the correct and independent lead belaying according to «Safe Climbing Indoors»
Rules	Bouldering Rules	«Safe Climbing Indoors» and notice board at equipment	«Safe Climbing Indoors»	• «Safe Climbing Indoors» • Weight-reducing measures

* The Climbing Center offers courses to learn the skills of safe climbing and correct belaying.

Groups:
- For groups, their leader takes responsibility for the entire group.
- The group-leader must have the appropriate leader training, according to our "Guidelines for External Leaders".
- The "Guidelines for External Leaders" form must be completed, signed and handed to the staff in advance.

General:
- Basically, the rules and procedures of «Safe Climbing Indoors» apply.
- Climbing without rope protection outside the bouldering area: foot height max. 1 meter above the ground.
- The separately posted bouldering rules apply to the use of the bouldering facilities.
- No alcoholic beverages may be consumed before and during climbing and belaying.
- Visitors and guests should check in with the staff at reception when entering the climbing center.
- Dogs are not allowed in the climbing center.
- Our "General Terms and Conditions" (GT&C) apply.
- Loss of a rent-lock is CHF 15,- and in case you need your deposit delivered back to you CHF 30,-